Don't forget that tomorrow is our Annual PTA Summer Fete.

The fun begins at 11am and the fete will close at 3pm.

There are lots of amazing stalls including the Year 6 stalls which have been designed, planned and will be run by the pupils. A delicious Hog Roast, Pimms Tent, Face Painting and lots more!

THANKYOU AGAIN

We would like to say Thank you again to parents for their generosity over the past 3 weeks for our 'Own Clothes Day' collections for the Summer Fete.

We have some superb prizes for the Bottle Stall, an amazing range of fun fillers in the jars and a mountain of delicious cakes and wonderful plants. We really appreciate your support very much and look forward to seeing you all at the Fete tomorrow between 11am and 3pm.

GOOD LUCK TO YOU BOTH!

We would like to say a huge Thank you and the very best for the future to Miss Arnold and Mrs Leader who will both be leaving our staff team at the end of this term.

Mrs Leader has been a popular and inspirational member of our team for more than 13 Years. She has now decided to retire and spend some time travelling to see her family in Denmark more often and also spending some more time with her husband. We are however delighted that Mrs Leader has agreed to remain on our staff team in a supply capacity to help cover classes.

Miss Arnold is moving from Kent to London and has been appointed as Class Teacher at a Primary School closer to where she will be living.

Having joined us 3 years ago as a Student, she has been a wonderful first teacher for our Reception pupils and we wish her the very best in this next stage in her career and indeed her new home.
